

Welcome!

Welcome! At Lagganlia, we love having adventures!

An adventure is when you try something new, or go somewhere different or achieve great things. It is that moment when you are not quite sure if you will succeed.... And then you do! It is exciting. It is unpredictable and it is something to be treasured. You will tell stories about these adventures for the rest of your days! This adventure journal will help you remember your story.

What will your story be?.....

Where are we going?

Draw your route on the map ►

How long will it take you to get there?

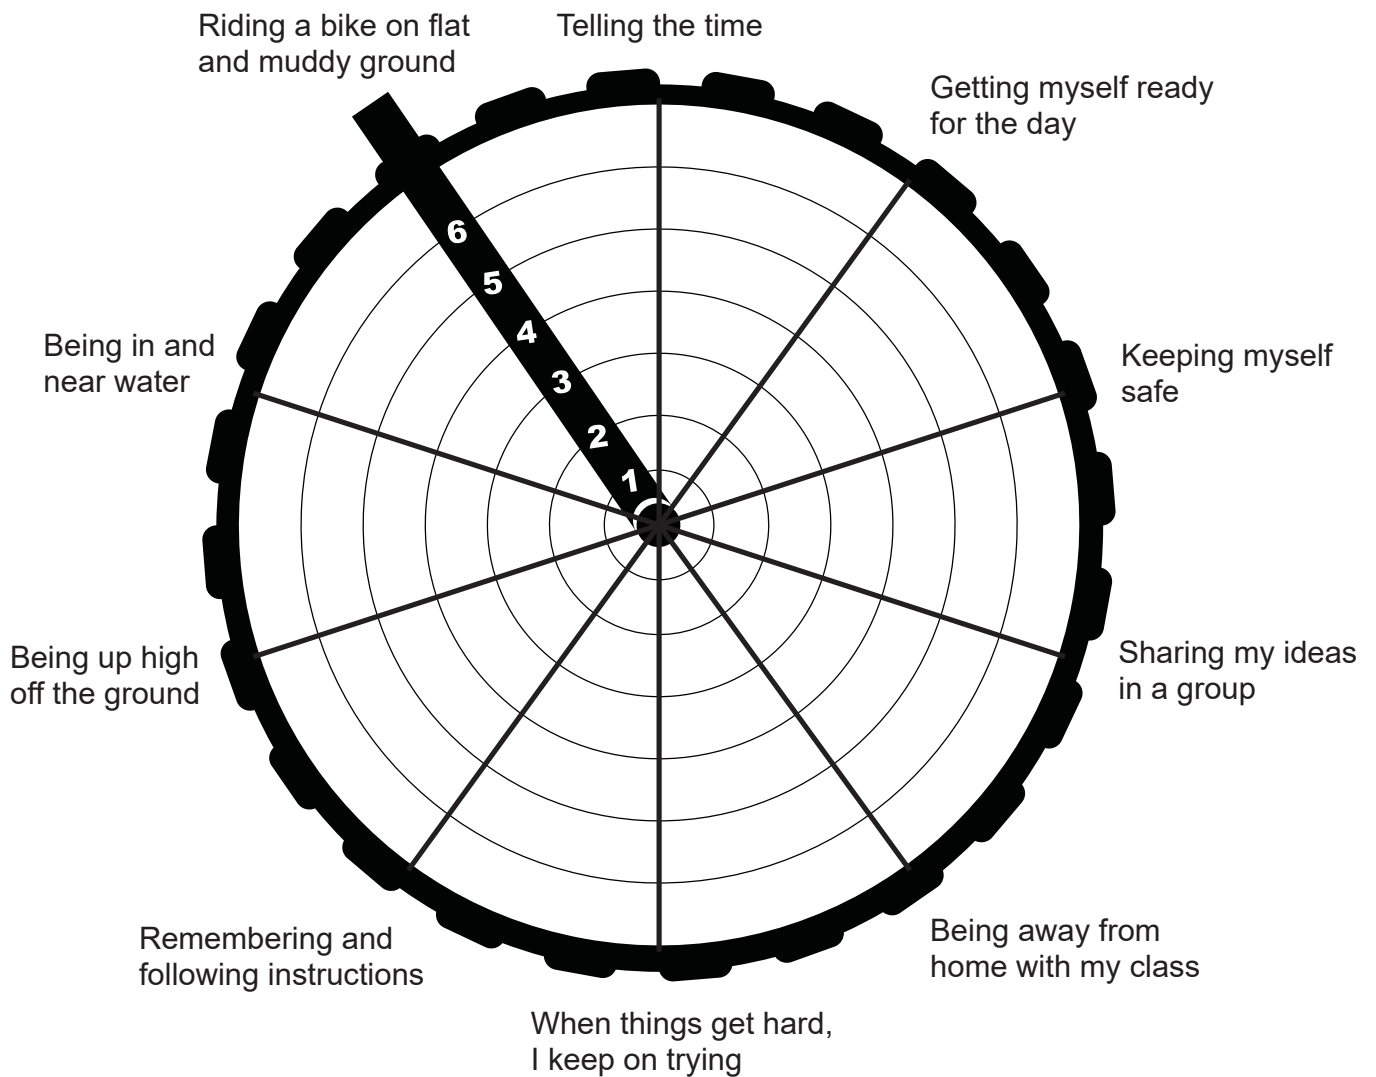

What will you pass on your journey?

How am I doing?
